Methods for verifying learning outcomes and assessment criteria

Learning outcomes presented above are verified as follows:

LECTURES Formative assessment: active in discussions summarizing individual lectures and assigned material (e.g. reading a book, watching films), giving the opportunity to assess the Student's understanding of the subject; written assignments given during the semester (eg essay); case-study tasks. Summative assessment: final written test in the last class (50% of the points must be obtained to obtain a positive grade for the course; the teacher has the opportunity to carry out all verification work in the form of a remote test on the eCourses platform

PRACTICE: Formative assessment: ongoing activity in the classroom and participation in discussions; preparation of a presentation on a given topic and its elaboration in class; tickets; written work (essay) based on given books, articles or films; case-study tasks; colloquium, tickets. Summative assessment: arithmetic mean of the forming grades with the rounding conditions specified and placed on the e-Course platform - no possibility of obtaining a credit without writing a final test with a positive grade (min. 50% of points); the lecturer may conduct a final test in the form of a remote test via the eKursy platform
